“Tell Me the Truth About Love”

Sunday, February 20 at 2:00 p.m.

Tickets are now available at the Reference and

Adult Services Desk: $2 adults/$1 seniors and students

Gracing the stage will be Blythe Merrifield, mezzo soprano and Ester Chung Marks on piano. Together their music will carry you with beautiful singing, playing, and a finely honed sense of the dramatic. Living in Asia for a number of years, Ms. Merrifield has toured with the Shanghai Symphony and at various international events. After studying in Vienna, Ms. Marks returned to New York, where she has played many prestigious venues, including Lincoln Center and the Staller Center. For more information, please call Cheryl Sheehan, Executive Director, at ext. 377.

Medieval Magic

Thursday, February 24
1:00-1:45 p.m.

In-person registration required.

Tickets available beginning Thursday, February 10

Take a magical journey to a long time ago, to a time of knights and dragons, wizards and magic where you will meet Merlin the Magician and Nogarad the Dragon. While there you witness a fellow member of the audience become a magical wizard and perform amazing magic (maybe it will even be you!). Schoolage children and their families are invited to see all the magic, puppetry, ventriloquism, and just plain fun.

Book Discussion

Thursday, February 24, 7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

The library will be hosting a discussion of Yann Martel's best-selling novel, Life of Pi. The precocious son of a zookeeper, Pi Patel is raised in Pondicherry, India, where he tries on various faiths for size, attracting "religions the way a dog attracts fleas." Planning a move to Canada, his father packs up the family and their menagerie and they hitch a ride on an enormous freighter. After a harrowing shipwreck, Pi finds himself adrift in the Pacific Ocean, trapped on a 26-foot lifeboat with a wounded zebra, a spotted hyena, a seasick orangutan, and a 450-pound Bengal tiger named Richard Parker. Copies of Life of Pi will be available at the Circulation Desk on Tuesday, February 1st. Refreshments will be served. Pick up a copy ahead of time and join us February 24.

Rummage For Historical Photographs and Videos

Rummage through your attic, basement, closets and drawers. Explore old boxes, scrapbooks and picture albums. If you have any pictures or videos that you would like to donate to our library or would allow us to scan, we would be delighted to add them to our collection. The big plan is to digitize these historical photographs. Please help us to preserve our Community's past. For more information, contact Linda S. Knel at 631-399-1511, ext. 240.

Peddler's Village Strawberry Festival Bus Trip

Saturday, April 30 #1656

Registration for MMSCL cardholders begins on Tuesday, February 22.

Registration for non-district patrons begins on Thursday, February 24.

Bus trip tickets are non-refundable! Join the Community Library as we venture to the Peddler's Village Strawberry Festival in Lahaska, Pennsylvania. Set amidst 42 acres of beautifully landscaped grounds and winding brick pathways, the Village is home to 70 specialty shops. If you like to shop, Peddler's Village is the place! The Strawberry Festival features crafts people displaying their wares. Throughout the day, strawberries are served up in various forms; dipped in chocolate, in assorted pastries and shortcake, jams, and so much more. Live entertainment and pie-eating contests add to the festivities of this traditional spring celebration. Our day includes lunch at the famous Cock-n-Bull Restaurant. The menu includes: tossed green salad, choice of baked chicken breast with Dutch bread and potato stuffing or pasta primavera, plus warm country apple crisp for dessert. The price per person is $54 which includes round trip coach transportation, lunch, and all tips and gratuities. The bus departs the library at 7:30 a.m.

All programs are available to Mastics-Moriches-Shirley Community Library cardholders and require advanced registration, unless otherwise indicated. Please have your library card available when you register. The Library is glad to provide reasonable accommodations for patrons with special needs. Please call us at least two weeks prior to the program to make arrangements.

Library Services for the Homebound
