Let's Do Lunch and a Movie

Friday, May 13 at 1:00 p.m. #1865

Registration begins on Tuesday, May 3.

Seniors are welcome to bring a bagged lunch and join us for some light refreshments while we watch the delightfully romantic comedy, Spanglish, starring Adam Sandler, Tea Leoni, Paz Vega and Cloris Leachman. Sandler plays John Clasky, a renowned chef who is in the prime of his professional career. He's the classic "good guy", who loves his family and keeps a great balance between the time he devotes to work and the time with his kids. Plus he loves his insecure wife Deborah, played by Tea Leoni. Complementing the cast is (Flor) Paz Vega, a protective Mexican mom who wants to stay as close as possible to her native Mexican values, even while living in the heart of Los Angeles, and working as a maid for the Clasky family. Rated PG-13 for some sexual content and brief language. This film is 111 minutes in length.

Book Discussion

Thursday, May 26 from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

The library will be hosting a discussion of Elisabeth

Robinson's debut novel, The True and Outstanding Adventures of the Hunt Sisters. The best letters are the ones that tell you everything; not just the big, important stuff, but the little details of life. Robinson's novel is made up entirely of letters, emails, faxes, etc. all written by Olivia Hunt, erstwhile film producer, during the year she learns her sister Maddie has leukemia. Olivia scuttles between her hometown in Ohio, where her sister still lives, and Los Angeles, where she's trying to get a film version of Don Quixote off the ground, all the time writing to the various people in her life with humor, peskiness and poignancy. Copies of The True and Outstanding Adventures of the Hunt Sisters will be available at the Circulation Desk on Tuesday, April 26. Refreshments will be served.
