Tune in @ Your Library

Tune in @ Your Library, it always tops the charts.

Take part in a great line-up; it's where all the action starts. Join your Summer Reading Club; it's an awesome thing to do. You'll find a symphony of knowledge just waiting there for you.

There are three ways to join the Summer Reading Club this year. You may register, beginning Friday, June 24th, from your home computer, from one of the Library's computers or in person at the Library.

It's all about you! You choose the books! You choose the prizes! The more you read, the more prizes you'll be able to choose. Complete the Summer Reading Club and be invited to the party.

For the younger crowd (birth through entering first grade), there is a read-with-me club. Read a designated number of books together and receive a family invitation to the party.

The Parties:

Tune In with Zak Morgan

Kids who join and complete either Tune in @ Your Library or the Jitterbugs Read-With-Me Club will be invited to tune in and chill out with the zany music and antics of Zak Morgan.

Fifties Sock Hop

As a special celebration for kids entering 6th and 7th grades, a sock hop featuring live music, cool giveaways and snacks will be held. All kids invited to the sock hop are encouraged to wear retro styles.

Thai and Laotian Cooking Demonstration

Monday, July 11 from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. #2091

Registration begins on Saturday, July 2.

Penn Hongthong returns to the Community Library to demonstrate some delicious and healthful recipes from her new cookbook, Simple Laotian Cooking. The featured recipe items include: Skewered chicken (Satay), Satay sauce, and spring salad (Yum Sa Lud). Penn's cookbook will be available to purchase at the demonstration for $20.00. For more information please call the Reference and Adult Services Information Desk at 399-1511 ext. 240.

Tune in to Talent

Friday, August 5 at 7:00 p.m. #2179

The Teen Services Department is having its first annual talent show. Come and be a part of this sensational extravaganza as you perform your way to stardom. No matter what your talent you are invited to participate.

You can sing, dance, act, recite poetry, perform magic or tell jokes. This is a great opportunity to impress your friends and family with your talents. So start practicing and register for the talent show today. All acts have 4 minutes to perform. Sorry, no lip syncing acts allowed in this show.

Adults

We are now loaning books on iPods

If you find yourself "too busy" to read a book, your library has just what you need. For years we've provided readers who are on the go with books on audiocassettes and CDs. Beginning on July 1st you can borrow an iPod mini with an entire book loaded on something the size of a pack of cards. No more changing cassettes or CDs, no more bulky cases to keep with you. We predict that commuters will find the mini iPods, especially convenient. Want to listen while you walk? The iPod mini can be with you, too. For more information, please call the Information Desk at 399-1511, ext. 240.

Jump on Board with the Adult Summer Reading Club

Let's Do Lunch and a Movie

Friday, July 22 at 1:00 p.m. Registration begins on Friday, July 8.

Seniors are welcome to bring a bagged lunch and join us for some light refreshments to watch the delightful comedy, Meet the Fockers. Robert DeNiro (Jack Byrnes) and Ben Stiller (Greg Focker) are back for a new session of disastrously funny family bonding in this hilarious sequel to Meet the Parents. Now the time has come for Jack Byrnes (DeNiro) and his wife, Dina, to meet their daughter's future in-laws, Roz and Bernie Focker. Roz (Barbra Streisand) is an uninhibited sex therapist specializing in geriatrics, and Bernie (Dustin Hoffman) is a retired liberal attorney who longs for a return to 1960s radicalism. The Fockers and Byrneses are woefully mismatched from the start, and no matter how hard Greg and his fiancé Pam try, there is no bringing their families together. Rated PG-13 for some crude and sexual humor, language and a brief drug reference. This film is 114 minutes in length.

Thursday, July 21 at 5:00 p.m. – Juggling #2122 Thursday, July 28 at 5:00 p.m. – Magic #2123

Come to both workshops or come to one, but don't miss out on this chance to learn from the gifted and talented Magic of Amore. He will be here to teach the art of juggling to those who wish to learn. By the end of the workshop you will have learned to juggle all sorts of objects and learned the tricks of world famous jugglers. To practice at home everyone will leave with their own set of juggling scarves. Abracadabra! The magic workshop is next. Learn amazing feats of magic and illusion. All the secrets of magic you have seen will be yours to know so that you can perform these tricks at home. Each student magician will receive a special magic kit. Be a part of the Magic of Amore and sign up today.

Camera Club

Friday, July 22 at 4:30 p.m. #2113

Learn to take better photos from our librarian/photographer Mr. Casper. Each month there will be a new project with new skills and camera techniques to go with it. At each session you will be given a camera, then we develop the film. See how creative you can be while photographing friends, family, your pets and nature. Join Mr. Casper for the next meeting of the Camera Club and get ready to snap some great shots.

Mad Musical Mania Scavenger Hunt

Literacy Students Need You!

"I thought they would be able to tell I was unable to read". "Now every day, a new world is opening in my life". "The happiest day of my life was when I got my American Citizenship". "Because I am learning English, I can understand when I bring my daughter to the doctor". These are the words of literacy students who found their lives changed with the help of their volunteer tutors. Do you think you have the time to change someone's life? Currently there are over 700 adult learners county-wide seeking assistance with conversational English or reading and writing. A 24-hour Literacy Suffolk, Inc. Tutor Training Workshop begins September 20, 6:00 p.m. at the library.

For more information on becoming a tutor, call 399-1511 ext. 214 or 215. ■
